Illinois State Law requires current Coggins test 12 months to date of show and for out of state horses, a 30 day health certificate & entry permit.

Under the Equine Activity Liability Act, each participant who engages in an equine activity expressly assumes the risk of engaging in and legal responsibility for injury, loss, or damage to the person or property resulting from the risk of equine activities.

The decision of the judge or judges is final. All classes will be shown in the exact order as on the listing and all exhibitors are responsible for following the show order and being aware of when their respective class is due in the show ring. All horses and their riders must be at the right entrance gate, ready for their respective class before the time of the previous class ends. Failure to do so will disqualify the entry with no refund or responsibility on the part of the Fair Officials. No Exhibitory Ticket Required. No Stalls Available. No entries will be taken after the class starts. No Refunds.
